Migrant workers website (Migrant Care)

- A website for migrant workers.(Only in Tamil Nadu)
- Must have two separate logins. (For employers and workers)
- Must be secure platform.
- Verification is needed to ensure there is no fake or duplicate user.
- Must have separate dashboards for employer login and worker login.
- Make use of React.js, Node.js, express.js, jwt+ bcrypt.
- Make use of data sets , and ML algorithms.
- Job–worker matching using: skills, location, past work ratings.
- Clustering workers by region & skill.
- Recommendation system using cosine similarity.

Employer:

- Employer must be able to post job vacancies.
- Dashboard must show some statistics about the available workers in a region .
- Employer must be able to edit the job post. (Available or expired)
- Employer must also be able to hire workers in bulk or small quantity based on their nearby location and preferred skills.
- Employers must be able to rate a worker who has done work under the respective employer.
- Grievance tab.
- Information repository for uploading employer's details and company's license.
- job application status (Pending / Accepted / Rejected)

Worker :

- Each worker must be given a unique migrant id after successful login.
- The worker must be able to see all the listings of jobs posted by the employer.
- The worker must have the option to filter jobs as per their required location and skills.(district wise, area- wise)

- Ai recommendations and job matchings for workers.
- Worker details repository.
- Grievance tab.
- Helpdesk.
- Job application history (Applied / Selected / Completed)